dreamed I heard an - oth - er moth - er say, How

East to West I heard the bu - gles blast From dare you take my boy a - way from me My

Town and farm, they answered Wars A - larms, And pride and joy, he shall not march a - way. He's pledged them - selves to fight un - til the last, I mine, all mine un - til E - ter - ni - ty, And saw a moth - er part - ing from her boy, The then I saw that oth - er moth - er stand, Her tears were stream - ing down her fur - rowed cheek, Not pale cheeks wet with tears be - side her boy, She tears of grief were they, but tears of joy that day For kissed him once a - gain She took his hand and then She lis - ten to the words I heard her speak. said, March on my boy, my pride and joy.

CHORUS

I am proud to have a boy like you, I am proud — my boy be - cause you're true to the flag your Fa - ther fought for

Brave - ly fought and died for too March a - way and keep that flag up there Proud - ly float - ing in the air

With your gun up - on your shoul - der And your un - i - form of blue, I'm proud to be the Moth - er of a boy like you. I am you.
